

Information Sheet

The city of Lima

Peru's incredibly rich and compelling archaeological heritage and its great natural beauty draw tens of thousands of visitors each year. Lima runs at a slower pace than many South American metropolises; its rhythm is more traditional, and its people reflect a steadier, calmer constitution.

Museums with great works of art, archaeological sites, beaches, the boardwalk, valleys, natural reserves, the nightlife, the thrill of adventure sports and the exquisite cuisine gives Peru's capital an authentic personality and makes tourism in Lima a unique experience in the country.

Historic Centre of Lima

The city of Cusco

The ancient capital city of the Tahuantinsuyo is a place of intense contrasts and the seduction of its magnificent Inca walls, crowned by Spanish-styled balconies and tile roofs are a testimony of its legacy: a mixture that enriches itself with the energy that irradiates from the religious buildings, all of them adorned with priceless works of art. The creativity of artisans and festivities such as Corpus Christi and Inti Raymi, celebrate the communion between Christian and ancestral traditions that is hard to find anywhere else. Rejoice, you just have arrived to the center of the world.

Universidad del Pacífico

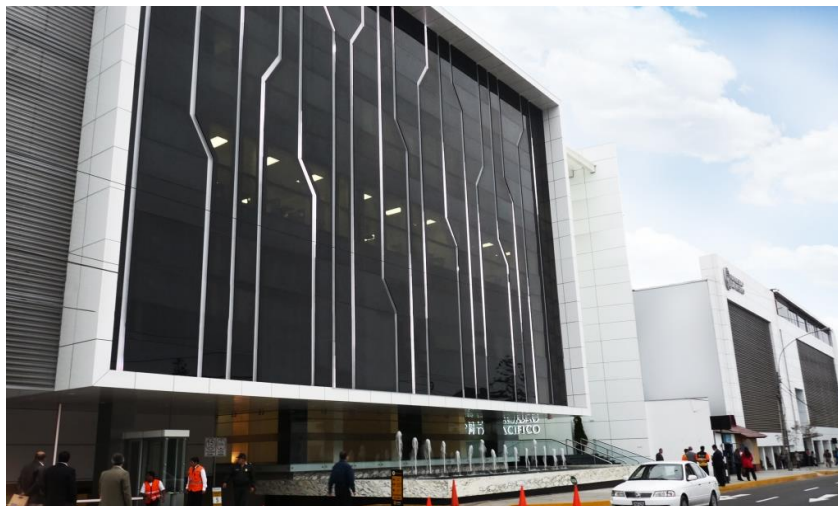

Aula Magna – Universidad del Pacífico

Universidad del Pacífico (UP) is a private university established in 1962 by a group of Peruvian entrepreneurs supported by the Jesuit community. Today it has become a university specialized in the areas of economics and business administration. In the past three decades, UP has been ranked as the most prestigious higher education institution in its fields of specialization in Peru, and among the leading institutions of its kind in the Latin American region.

Bachelor's Degrees offered at the UP in: Accounting, Business Administration, Business Engineering, Economics, Law, Marketing, and International Business. Preliminary lists of courses offered are available around one month prior to the beginning of the semester. Final lists of courses offered each semester will be available on time for students' final registration in Lima, about one or two weeks before the beginning of classes. The university offers a list of courses taught in English every semester.

At the moment we have approximately 4050 students enrolled at the undergraduate level, and 1400 students enrolled in graduate programs. The academic year at UP at the undergraduate level consists of 2 semesters. The first semester begins in late-March and ends in July; the second semester begins in mid-August and ends in mid-December. A break of approximately 3 to 4 weeks occurs in between both semesters. At the graduate level, the academic year consists of 3 terms: January-April, May-August, and September-December.

Housing Options: Universidad del Pacífico does not have student dormitories. However, the International Office does provide information and assistance to exchange students on how to accommodate in a student house (privately run dorms), live in a family home or rent a flat (apartment) in the city. The International Office has a list of recommended contacts for all these options. Monthly rents are about US$ 300 to US $ 400 for a room at a student house sharing the common living areas and kitchen.

Visa: Students must send their flight tickets indicating the Peruvian consulate closer to them, where the visa will be issued. The types of visa for students under agreements are named: Official visas, and are requested for our office. Remember students are not allowed to apply for this type of visa on their own.

After submitting all documents, students will receive an email confirming that their visas have been approved. The process for an Official Visa usually takes between 2 to 6 weeks prior to the trip.

Health Insurance: Exchange students are requested to purchase health/medical insurance in their home country. Accident or Travel Insurances are not acceptable.

Estimated Cost of Living: Approximate costs:

Accommodation: US$ 300 - 400/month
Food, transportation: US$ 250-300/month
Books, photocopying, etc.: around US$ 200/semester.
