International Semester in Linz

Catholic Private University KU (Linz)

The Catholic Private University Linz is a vibrant place to study. It enjoys an international reputation for excellence in scientific research and teaching since 1669. Critical thinking rooted in an appreciation of tradition and linked with both social action as well as spiritual praxis make the KU Linz an extraordinary location: here Theology, Philosophy, and Art History meet every day when faculty and students engage in lively discussions on key issues in society, academy, and church. Our University Library is the third largest in Upper Austria. It holds more than 255,000 books, 3,700 journals, including 500 current and 770 electronically retrievable journals.

Studying in Linz

Linz is the third-largest city of Austria and capital of the state of Upper Austria (one out of nine states altogether). It is located in the northern part of Austria, only about 30 kilometers (19 miles) south of the Czech border, on both sides of the River Danube. The population of the city is about 200,000. Linz is best known for its high-tech innovations as well as its contemporary art scene coming together in a unique way in the Ars Electronica Center.
