PHILANTHROPY & CIVIL SOCIETY

A Comparative View

COURSE STRUCTURE

3 weeks of classes + service learning activities

Learning via lectures, guest lecturers and student presentations (Monday through Thursday)

Service learning activities will take place on Fridays

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

This course introduces students to individual and institutional philanthropy and the role and management of nonprofit/civil society organizations in community life through a hands-on service learning grant making experience, specifically in Turkey and the United States.

As part of this course students will have the opportunity to learn about several civil society organizations. In addition, students will decide, collectively, to make a grant to one. All of the organizations with which you will work will receive a grant from the class; however, you will decide which one you want to support with a larger grant.

FINANCES AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The total cost of the program: 1250 USD

Excludes accommodation on campus, meals, costs associated with service learning activities (transportation etc.), other miscellaneous expenses.

Students coming from partner institutions of Koc University will get 10% discount on the tuition.

Optional dorm accommodation in single rooms (21 nights): 525 USD

The program offers merit-based scholarships.
