KWORKS (Entrepreneurship Research Center)

KWORKS is the meeting point of entrepreneurs and investors. It organizes activities to guide enterprises and provide economic sustainability. It is the most accessible and correct address to bring your entrepreneurial ideas to life. If you’re interested in KWORKS Acceleration Programs, don’t forget to check your mailbox and stay tuned!

A few of the programs KWORKS runs:

- KWORKS'21 ACCELERATOR
- KWORKS BiGG
- KWORKS FINTECH
- KWORKS IoT

From Freshman to Senior, KWORKS is welcoming to all Koç University students!

Koç University Leadership Lab was established in 2017 to investigate the ways in which better leaders can emerge. According to the World Economic Forum “leadership is in crisis!”. Dark leaders at multiple levels are a threat to sustainability. We aim to understand how better candidates step up for leadership roles and current leaders support sustainably. We approach this problem from various lenses, including but not limited to leadership emotions, leader characteristics, contextual factors, implicit expectations, and followership perspectives.

We contribute to both science and practice by applying our research to real-world problems. If you would like to investigate leadership sustainability with us, there are several internship positions available in which you can contribute to research projects and develop interventions for organizations. We look forward to meeting you!

KOÇ-KAM (The Center for Gender Studies at Koç University)

KOÇ-KAM is established as an interdisciplinary hub for gender research and gender studies in March 2010. KOÇ-KAM brings faculty and researchers from multiple disciplines such as sociology, social psychology, history, law, nursing, philosophy and political science together in order to share their research, conduct collaborative national and international projects and undertake various academic and training activities within and outside the university on issues pertaining to women and gender. As a hub for gender studies, KOÇ-KAM also holds a competitive funding program to support outstanding academic research projects on gender issues and runs the Gender Studies Certificate Program at Koç University.

Koç University Social Impact Forum

Koç University Social Impact Forum (KUSIF) was established in 2012 as a social impact-focused research and implementation center to encourage social innovation through research, education, and collaboration. KUSIF is one of the leading organizations in the field of social impact in Turkey and is a reference and application center in social impact studies.

KUSIF offers a common space Social Impact Laboratory where students interested in social entrepreneurship can come together, as well as an incubation service such as mentoring, networking, and intensive training.

Zebra Program aims to build a sustainable student community to succeed in generating solutions for social and environmental challenges based on the Sustainable Development Goals. For this purpose, our student community works on different purposes: creating content, networking activities, SKA integration, and creating business solutions.

KUSIF also offers two academic track programs: The Sustainability and Impact Management track program, and Community Engagement and Leadership track program. KUSIF has various publications, also offers MGMT.310 and MGMT.360 courses. Detailed information can be found on the related pages.

KOÇ-KAM frequently organizes conferences, panels, and seminar series to inform a wider audience on gender-related research that intersects with various disciplines and fosters debate on gender issues between scholars, students, civil society actors, artists, and policy-makers. Research at KOÇ-KAM is broadly concerned with patterns of cultural and social prejudice in gender-based inequalities.

Arçelik Research Center

Koç University Arçelik Research Center for Creative Industries (KUAR), founded jointly by Koç University and Arçelik A.Ş. in 2015, aims to add value, via research, that increases the efficiency and competitiveness of the creative industries, mainly in Turkey. A wide range of topics such as lifestyle, entertainment (game, performance, movies, drama, animation), cultural heritage (exhibitions, heritage, analysis), info-assistance, transportation, education, healthcare lie within the scope of research conducted at KUAR, where research and development on conceptual/experimental/visionary prototypes, working prototypes, re-design prototypes of products, design guidelines is undertaken.

Karma LAB

Koç University, KARMA Mixed Reality Lab established in 2019, with funding from İstanbul Development Agency (İSTKA), brings together multi-disciplinary teams of graphics and narrative artists, (AR/VR/MR=XR) developers, psychology and neuroscience experts, engineers, and computer scientists. Together we design, research, and develop tailored solutions for better learning, wellbeing, accessible cultural heritage, and scalable industry solutions. KARMA Lab’s mission is to advance research, develop and apply new interactive media, in short, XR technologies for scalable solutions in socially beneficial areas.

ALIS

Koç University Academic and Life Skills (ALIS) Program is a student-focused self-development program that aims to help students raise self-awareness and build soft skills that are needed in academic, personal, and professional life. These skills include communication, relationship management, time management, stress management, goal setting, team membership, and leadership skills.

The program offers 4 mandatory and elective courses to students at various levels of their undergraduate journey, and skill-building workshops for graduate students. Facilitated by psychologists, these courses are experiential in nature and employ reflective exercises to reach the learning outcomes.

The program has recently been evolving to increase its emphasis on topics such as resilience, engagement, and prosocial behavior. One of the program’s advanced courses, ALIS 350, included a project component where teams of students conducted a semester-long project around the theme of sustainability on campus.

Community Engagement and Leadership Certificate Program

KUSIF offers a certificate program that aims to develop an understanding of issues related to social impact and inherent interconnections between business and other societal institutions. The program is designed to increase students’ knowledge and skills and support their leadership capacity in the fields of education and practice, social innovation, contribution to society, and social impact. Interested students can gain diverse knowledge on interdisciplinary themes such as corporate social responsibility, international organizations and NGOs, creating, measuring, and social impact.

Sustainability and Impact Management

Sustainability and Impact Management Academic Track aims to prepare its students to be responsible leaders and be part of the solutions of social and environmental problems during their future careers in public, private, and non-profit sectors through mandatory and a wide range of elective courses. The primary goal of this track program is to equip students with the necessary knowledge and skills on sustainability and impact management with the support of several colleges within the university.

KOÇ-KAM Track Programs

Gender Studies

Koç University Gender Certificate Program (GSCP) is organized to create a perception about gender and focuses on the debates and concerns about women in gender studies. GSPC adopts interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches based on all different human experiences in the sexist world. This program aims to provide serious ideas on gender issues to the humanities and social sciences fields. In particular, course content and training techniques offer historical, philosophical, socio-scientific, and legal perspectives on a variety of gender issues involving gender inequalities. This program also addresses strategies for reducing inequalities in the modern world.

- Millennium Fellowship
- UC Berkeley Global Leadership & Innovation Virtual Program
Global Learning Certificate: Leadership, Sustainability and Social Innovation in 21st Century program is 6-days long online learning journey developed by the Office of International Programs with the collaboration of leading faculty members at KU and professionals in the field.

Students participating in the program will embark on a learning journey where domains of personal well-being, decision making, social innovation, sustainability, future of work, and conscious leadership will intersect each other.

KU Global Aid (KUGA)

KUGlobalAid is an international service-learning program for Koç University students, working to build awareness and solidarity in the world. Through a global, humanitarian, and need-oriented perspective; KUGA seeks to assist the world to improve itself. In line with the necessities of the 21st century in which we face complex and interrelated problems, our main motivation is to create social impact using the tools of social entrepreneurship, human-centered design, and sustainable building. Stay tuned for future KUGA Talks!

Let's Be United Project

We are trying to build social interactions between migrant and local children through organizing homework time, workshops, and conversations. Ku Global Aid volunteers aim to increase social integration with the self-development of these children. We want to contribute to their social identity, perspectives, and their collective & self-development.
Since 2017, each year a cohort of students are selected among Global Learning and Leadership for Sustainability Track Program as Fellows. Students go through a 6-week online training program. After completing the online training, they attend the Silicon Valley Meetup in March, where they connect with one another and build on the learning from the online training. Fellows receive year-round mentorship and represent the program and their schools at global conferences and events.

Mindfulness activities organized by Koç University SKL are actually held under Stanford UIF. Also, the reason for this manual is Stanford UIF itself.

Mindfulness

SKL Mindfulness Events help students develop their skills in managing stress, increasing their concentration, and focusing on their work when needed. In previous events, we practiced some yoga postures and moves, organized mindfulness/stress management workshops, and learned techniques that promote relaxation while studying at a desk.

Students Ambassador Programs

Students Ambassador Programs (SA), which SKL launched in 2016, provides a platform for students to participate in the Library’s various activities. With this program, students acquire the opportunity to interact with the faculty and the administrative staff, which further facilitates their ties with the campus community. This program also serves the students to develop their leadership, communication, and teamwork skills.

Virtual Book Club Talks

SKL Virtual Book Club Talks brings book lovers on campus together. Each month, students, academic, and administrative staff gather and discuss a specific book chosen by the KU community. Students take part in Virtual Book Club Talks and lead the debate as a moderator. They prepare presentations and visuals for the Library’s social media accounts. Moderating the talk is a valuable experience for students as it gives them the chance to improve their presentation, time management, and communication skills.
Careers In Social Impact & Sustainability 2021 event was organized by CDC in cooperation with Koç University Social Impact Forum (KUSIF) and AIChE KU (American Institute Of Chemical Engineers - Koç University). 20 speakers, 4 academicians, who are experts in different subjects, 14 brands (L’Oréal Turkey, Mazars Denge, EY Turkey, et al.) and approximately 500 audiences from all over Turkey attended the event.

Diversity, Inclusion and Disabled Student Coordination Unit Webinars

Diversity, inclusion, and disabled student unite enables every student who has differences such as religion, gender, language, disability, and cultural characteristics to participate in equal university life within the Koç University. This unit is responsible for receiving, reporting, monitoring student applications regarding unequal or discriminatory practices, attitudes, and situations.

In addition, the unit provides coordination with all other units in the University for the development of solutions for unequal or discriminatory practices and situations that students may encounter during education. The unite also provides the necessary information about the objectives of the Office of diversity, inclusion, and coordination of disabled students to the faculty and administrative staff.
SDG Action and Awareness Week in Koç University

As a part of the University Global Coalition, Koç University organizes a sustainability week every year. The SDG Awareness Week program, which is a program full of workshops and campus-wide panels, which includes peer-learning and interactive events, also includes the opportunity to engage with international students.

Why on Earth Should I Know about SDGs? Workshop: This workshop aims to create an interactive learning environment for the international students to understand the holistic and inclusive aspects of sustainability while learning the mission and importance of SDGs by using a collaborative whiteboard. (by Pelin Sürmeli)

How Do I get to Know about Sustainability? Learning Practices in Koc University: Opening Remarks: Zeynep Gürhan Canlı. Sustainability is everywhere! This panel introduces students to the diverse resources in Koc University, including the Sustainability Manual of the Campus, Social Impact Forum, Entrepreneurship Research Center, Leadership Lab, Diversity and Inclusion Office, ALIS, The Center for Gender Studies, SGKM, professors of sustainability-related courses, certification programs, projects, and events, etc.

Student Roundtables: Let the students talk! In this roundtable, students are going to discuss their ideas and share their knowledge on the related topic. The senior student moderator of the roundtable will be introducing interesting questions for you. At the student roundtable, an expert will join the session for a short presentation on the topic.
